AND, it appearing that the judges of the court, on January 18, 2005, approved for publication and solicitation of comment an amendment to Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-2, which would increase the short-term fee applications of debtors' counsel in Chapter 13 cases from $1500 to $1800 to reflect normal inflationary increases and ease the burden on consumer counsel,

AND, it further appearing that Notice was published in the legal publications of the nine counties which comprise the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, providing for an opportunity to submit comments by March 11, 2005, on the proposed amendments to Local Bankruptcy Rules 2016-2 and Local Bankruptcy Rules 1002-2 through 5 and 2016-4,

AND, it further appearing that comments were received in response to the publication of notice and solicitation of comment, and that the judges of the court reviewed and considered said comments to increase the short-term fee applications of debtors' counsel in Chapter 13 cases from $1500 to $2000, and to amend Rule 1002-2(d)(1) to include the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Labor and Industry and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Revenue, as parties to receive notice of expedited hearings in complex Chapter 11 case, it is hereby

ORDERED, this 16th day of May 2005, that the proposed amendments to Local Bankruptcy Rules 2016-2 and Local Bankruptcy Rules 1002-2 through 5 and 2016-4 are approved and adopted effective immediately. It is further
